The Director of Ice Allocation's duty is also to sign all ice contracts on behalf of SCMHA with the new City of Hamilton and the Hamilton 4-Pad Arena. During these meeting/meetings the Director of Ice Allocation shall hand in or notify the City of Hamilton of SCMHA's SPECIAL EVENTS (currently it is the Tournament of Champions and the Ace Bailey Tournament). At this time the Director of Ice Allocation is to book all available ice for our other EVENTS (currently it is the Select Winterfest and Recreational League Championship Day). If unable to book at this time, then it is the Director of Ice Allocation's responsibility to inquire when this can be accomplished and firm up these required ice times – having contracts drawn up and signed with the new City of Hamilton and the Hamilton 4-Pad Arena., thus securing the required ice to run these events.
 - (ii) At this pre-season meeting, the pre-season ice hours (last weekend in August to the second Friday in September) is also allocated to the User Groups by the new City of Hamilton. The Director of Ice Allocation will secure hours as determined by the Director of Rep Operations and the Director of Recreation Operations for Fall Tryouts.
 - (iii) After the Ice Allocation Meeting with the new City of Hamilton and the other User Groups, the Director of Ice Allocation will call a SCMHA Ice Allocation Meeting. During this meeting the allocated ice hours for the Rep Program will be allocated to the Director of Rep Hockey and the allocated ice hours for the Recreational Program will be allocated to the Director of Recreational Hockey. These allocated ice hours will now be the regular weekly hours to be used by Rep Operations and the regular weekly hours to be used by Recreational Operations to run their programs. The only time these ice hours are to be altered will be when the following occurs: (a) SCMHA Tournament or Events, and (b) other new City of Hamilton User Group's Special Events.
 - (iv) In the event that there is any turned back ice (originally allotted and contracted to SCMHA by the new City of Hamilton) emanating from a City Special Event by one of the user groups (requiring a City Special Event Permit) or a SCMHA Sponsored Event (not requiring a Special Event Permit), then the following procedure will take place:

A meeting of the Ice Allocation Committee will be called in order to discuss the following:

- (v) How the ice will be allocated to the three SCMHA Programs (Rep, Recreation and Select) with the following standards established: a) Teams who need to get in League Games, OMHA Playdowns, League Playdowns will be given first consideration; b) Teams who have not or will not be on SCMHA ice for a week or more will be given second consideration;

- (vi) Rep and Select Teams will be given third consideration for the remainder of ice hours.
- (vii) How the ice hours will be paid for by the three SCMHA Programs (Rep, Recreation and Select) shall be determined. If the particular group requesting the ice hours cannot meet the financial requirements – then that particular group will forfeit their consideration for the ice.
- (viii) If the ice cannot be used by the three SCMHA Programs (Rep, Recreation and Select) then the hours will be turned back to the new City of Hamilton. The option of turning back hours to the new City of Hamilton can only be followed if the Special Event in question is not a Special Event that SCMHA is holding a permit for. In the event that the Special Event or Sponsored Event in question is an event that we hold a permit for or are hosting, we are obligated to pay for this ice as per the contract drawn up with the new City of Hamilton. In this case, any allocated ice hours at this point will be given equally to the three SCMHA Programs (Rep A, Recreation and Select). The cost of these hours shall be debited from the registration fees paid from the applicable SCMHA Program which has been allocated the ice hours.
